

LIGHTHOUSE

Michael Thorsby/Ben Hendricks

C#m7 Asus2
You were my lighthouse bringing me home

I'm lost here at sea and I'm guessing you're gone
C#m7 Asus2

What will I do when these waves crash on me

I'm looking for light but now I can't see

C#m7 Asus2
Feeling so empty and that I may drown

Looking for light nowhere to be found
C#m7 Asus2
Fearing you've left my heart starts to pound

Where is my light, oh where.....

Esus C#m7 B6
Where did you go, where have you been
A7 Esus
Did the waves crash against you, did you fall to the sand
C#m7 B6
Still on the shore, are you waiting for me
A7 Esus
I want to come home, but I just can't see
C#m7 B6
Where did you go, where have you been
A7
Ship with no captain, I am lost again
